The Pawleys Island Concert Band, under the direction of Carson Turner, is a community band located in Pawleys Island, South Carolina, USA.

The band is an all-volunteer, adult community band serving the Waccamaw neck and Georgetown. They perform several free concerts each year and provide an array of traditional concert band music from big band, marches, jazz, and show tunes to light classical selections. Members are area residents of all ages who desire to contribute their skills and dedication to our community to promote musicianship, present high-quality enjoyable music, and to encourage young people to enjoy the lifelong excitement of the musical arts.

Beginning with the Spring 2013 season, the band is now a collaborative affiliate of the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute of Coastal Carolina University. Rehearsals are each Tuesday at 7:00 PM at Litchfield Exchange behind Applewood Pancake House in Pawleys Island, South Carolina. We invite you to become involved with our organization by speaking with any of our members after the concert.

The band is funded in part by the South Carolina Arts Commission, which receives support from the National Endowment for the Arts.
