Assembly 3272 Newsletter

My fellow Sir Knights, I would like to wish a Happy New Year to you and your families.

We had an active month, with the gift bags presented to the Midway Fire Department, which was spearheaded by SK Joe Muffolett. Admiral Charles Sacavage and I were able to deliver gift bags to the entire shift, who were in a training session. The gift bags were well received with many thanks.

Also our Christmas party was well attended, thanks to Nancy McMahon, Ann Marie Sturgeon, Toni Gabriel and Mary Sacavage. The ladies did a great job in preparing and presenting the luncheon. Father Paul MacNeil and Father Pat Stenson stopped by to spend some time with us. Thanks to them and our special guests, Mr. and Mrs. Claus, we had some great photo opportunities. Thank you, Mr. and Mrs. Claus, i.e. SK Ed and Joanne Gagliano and family.

We were able to present our Sir Knight of the year award to SK Jim McMahon, and deservedly so, for all his work for the Knights, the church and the community. Congratulations Jim.

Please plan to attend the "Standup for Life" Rally in Columbia on 12 January. We plan to car pool.

The pasta dinner to fund our chalice program will be held on 9 February. We will be in the planning stages, this month, so please help if you can.

Yours,

Bill Sturgeon, Faithful Navigator January 1, 2019

The Christmas Party Drop-in substituted for the Assembly 3272 Business Meeting in December, 2018.

Our Sir Knight of the year: SK Jim McMahon, and deservedly so, for all his work for the Knights, the church and the community. Congratulations Jim.

The Wreaths Across America, is an organization which takes donations to place wreaths on veterans graves each year. Assembly 3272 Color Guard presented again this year at the Georgetown Veterans Memorial. Also seven wreaths were given to the Assembly, to place at the PBOC columbarium, at each of the sections. Pictured at the placement, is Faithful Admiral, SK Charles Sacavage in the new military style Fourth Degree regalia, which will replace the naval style worn by Faithful Navigator SK Bill Sturgeon. That regalia is to be retired at the end of the fraternal year in June. Many thanks to people who donated to this worthy cause, to remember our fallen.
