LIFE CHAIN DAY

More than 130 residents of Georgetown County joined other defenders of life in 1,200 cities across the United States in standing up for life on National Life Chain Day. This was the 19th annual "Life Chain" sponsored by the Georgetown County Citizens for Life. Lining sidewalks in Georgetown, South Carolina on Sunday, October 7, participants gave prayerful public witness as they offered an hour of silent prayer and meditation. Sir Knights of Assembly 3272, dressed in full regalia and tuxedo, and knights from Councils 11028 and 3067 made visible their shared commitment with other members of the Christian community to the sanctity of life.

With more than 1.8 million members, the Knights of Columbus is the world's largest Catholic lay organization. It provides members and their families with volunteer opportunities in service to the Catholic Church, the community, families, and young people. Knights of Columbus members last year set records by providing more than 70 million hours of charitable service and more than $158 million in donations to charitable causes.
